THE BULLETIN:

BY EDWARD H. BRITTON.

EVENING NEWS.

FIRST EDITION.

Munday Afternoon, Jan'y. 19, '63.

[TELEGRAPHED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

From Charleston, S. C.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 18.

A vessel supposed to be the steamer Huntress, laden with four hundred bales of cotton, attempted to run the blobkade and was burned off North Swash Channel last night. Four guns were fired by the blockaders at the mouth of Ship Channel about fifteen minutes after she was discovered.

Confederate Congress.

RICHMOND, Jan. 17,

The House to day refused to adopt a resolution to either buy or rent the Exchange Hotel, for the use of Congress.—Mr Foote introduced a bill to provide for the enrollment of foreigners in the army. Referred. Also, resolutions instructing investigations into Government ice contracts and abuses of the Commissary and Quartermasters Department. Adopted.—Mr Perkins introduced a joint resolution, calling upon the States to provide for the speedy trial of such Federal officers as may be turned over to them. Referred.—Mr Jones, delegate from the Choctaws, was qualified, and took his seat.

In the Virginia House of Delegates, eight ballots were had for Senator to-day. No election. Allen T. Caperton came within eight votes on the sixth ballot.

SECOND DISPATCH.

RICHMOND, Jan. 17.

On the twelfth ballot, to-day. Allen Taylor Caperton was elected Senator, the joint vote resulting: Caperton, 78; Russell, 23; Tucker, 38; Marshall, 8.

Northern News.

FREDERICKSBURG, Jan. 18, via RICHMOND, Jan. 18.

Northern dates of the 16th have been received, but the news is unimportant.

The Yankees still claim a victory at Springfield.

Gen. Grant is constantly expected at Memphis with his army. The 109th Illinois Regiment has been disbanded and the Lieutenant Colonel has gone over to the Confederates,

The steamer Musselman from White River, has been captured by the guerillas and burned. Officers and crew paroled.

The peace propositions of the New Jersey Legislature were introdnced by a former member of McClellan's staff. Reports of Stanton's probable resignation are again current in Washington,

From the West.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 17.

Rosencranz has sent Confederate officers captured at Murfreesboro, to Alton, Ill., to be closely confined, because of the recent Proclamation of President Davis, denying paroles to Federal officers.

Mitchell, commandant of the post at Nashville, ordered that all property of Rebel sympathizers found within one mile of where a bridge or car is burned by guerillas, shall be destroyed.

A special to the Mobile Advertiser & Register, dated Tullahoma, 16th, says the enemy, numbering 40,000, occupies his original position before Murfreesboro, and is suffering in consequence of the great scarcity of provisions. He is repairing the Railroad and making no preparations for an advance.

The weather is bitter cold—snow storm prevailing.

From Virginia.

RICHMOND, Jan. 18.

The Lynchburg Republican says the enemy has made another raid into Greenbrier county where they committed a number of depredations. They ventured within a mile of Lewisburg where they burned barns containing horses, protender, etc., and fired dwellings, but the timely arrival of Edgars' battalion checked their operations. They burned the barn, dwelling and granary of Austin Hudley, Sheriff of the county, turned his family out of doors and held them under guard until their dwelling was consumed.

Advices from the Valley state that the Federals are stripping the country of horses and provisions. The Emancipation Proclamation is also executed.

From Fredericksburg.

RICHMOND, Jan. 18.

The demonstration of the enemy indicate that an early attempt will be made to cross the river simultaneously above and below Fredericksburg. It is believed the attack may be made any time.

Maj. Gen. D. R. Jones died in Richmond today.

SECOND DISPATCH.

RICHMOND, Jan. 18.

It is reported that the Yankees are making preparations to attempt the passage of the Rappahannock and there is indications of a renewal of hostilities near Fredericksburg, not imposing however. These movements are believed to be to cover the operations in North Carolina.

From Tennessee.

BRILLIANT EXPLOITS.

GLORIOUS NEWS.

Capture of Four Transports.

AN ENGAGEMENT

AND

CAPTURE OF A GUN BOAT.

MOBILE, Jan. 18.

The Advertiser & Register has a dispatch from Tullahoma, dated 17th inst., which says:

Gen. S. B. Buckner and Gen. Wheeler, with a portion of his Cavalry Brigade, after burning the Rail Road Bridge in the enemys rear, pushed for the Cumberland River, where he intercepted and captured four large Transports, destroyed three of them with all the supplies on board and bonded one to carry off 400 paroled prisoners.

Being hotly pursued by a gunboat, he attacked, captured and destroyed her with her armament.

(signed,) BRAXTON BRAGG.

European Gossip.

We get the following paragraphs from the Paris correspondence of the New York World:

I am told that the Messrs. Baring, of London, have some five millions of dollars of money on deposit belonging to citizens of the South, who are either now in Europe or on their way here. At the present price of cotton, it does not take a very large cargo to amount to a very large sum in Liverpool. I know of one concern that has made three millions of dollars by running the blockade; and I presume Beauregard was not far out of the way when he told the people of Georgia not long ago that the exports and imports of Charleston and Savannah were as large as they have ever been before the blockade. The little steamer Kate, owned by a house in Liverpool, has been in and out of Charleston some thirty times. She draws eight feet of water, floats fifty feet above water, makes only eight knots an hour, carries four hundred bales, and plies between Charleston and Nassau with the regularity of a Brooklyn ferry boat. She generally makes the trip in four days. Her success has been wonderful, but I trust "the pitcher will go once too often to the well"

Poor Greece is down in the mouth. She cannot have the pet of her choice, and Ferdinand, who seems to be the favorite of the great powers, does not seem inclined to accept the honor. The election, under the circumstances, is a farce, and there is trouble brewing. England has sent Mr Elliot as a special Minister to Athens to arrange matters, but the Greeks are disposed to sulk.

The Emperor of the French has honored the king of the Bourse, the Baron de Rothschild, with a visit at his villa, a few miles from Paris. A distinguished company was invited to be present, and the fete was one of the most brilliant ever offered by wealth to royalty; for particulars, vide all the the journals of to-day. How much the entertainment cost, I presume no one knows but the cashier of the post; but I have heard it guessed at a million of francs. What a change in the "circumstances" of the imperial guest since he was dining "around town" in New York some twenty-five years ago with the lamented Colonel Manwell, and other "jolly good fellows" of that ilk!

The Emperor and Empress are now going the rounds of the theatres, and la petite Patti has had the honor of singing to their Majesties in the role of "Amina." I regret to add that she made what the French papers call a "croak" in the midst of one of the most brilliant roulades. But this was only an accident, which happen to the most perfect of prima donnas. It is an undeniable fact that Mademoiselle Adelina's fame is established, and her fortune made.

DON'T WANT TO FIGHT FOR THE NEGRO. While the Yankee prisoners from Murfreesboro' were lying at our depot on Sunday, waiting transportation to Richmond, a number of our citizens entered into conversation with them. They generally expressed themselves heartily tired of the war, and hoped for a long imprisonment, in preference to being exchanged "to fight for the negro."—Knoxville Register.

☞ The Portland Argus says it is consoling that, though thousands of brave white men fell at the battle of Fredericksburg, it is not known that a single negro was hurt.

☞ The Democrats of Sullivan county, Indiana, lately held a public meeting, and resolved that they could and would dispense with articles manufactured and sold by the fanatical New Englanders.

☞ The Philadelphia Inquirer states that the pickets of the Army of the Potomac extend from Falmouth to King George Court House, about 27 miles from the former point.

PROSPECTUS
THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, N. C.,
ADJUTANT GEN'S OFFICE,
Raleigh, Oct. 17, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 9.

The following regulations are published for the information of those persons wishing to draw bounty of deceased soldiers, in accordance with an ordinance of the Convention ratified the 23d day of February, 1863:

REGULATIONS.

1. The payment of bounty to the representatives of deceased soldiers is based upon the certificate of the commanding officer of the company, who will state the time of the enlistment of the soldier, the date of his decease in service, the amount of bounty already paid by the State, and the company and regiment to which he belonged.

2. The claimant will make affidavit before a magistrate that he or she is the next kin to the deceased, according to the provisions of the foregoing ordinance of the Convention, and that there is no other person entitled to make claim. The affidavit of the claimant must be sustained by that of one disinterested witness, that the facts stated are correct within his own knowledge and that he has no interest in the claim. The magistrate administering the oath will certify to the credibility of the the witness and the clerk of the County Court will certify, under seal, that he is an authorized and acting magistrate.

3. If the claimant or claimants be minors, payment will be made to the guardian, upon the production of the proper certificate under the seal of the Court, of his appointment and the sufficiency of his bond—the claim to be proved by him as in other cases.

4. A bounty of fifty dollars, deducting the bounty that may have been previously paid, is due to all persons who may have volunteered for three years or the war, and to all persons mustered into or continued in service under the provisions of the Conscription Act.

Monday Morning, Jan'y. 19, '63.

☞ For Telegraph News see first page.

To our Correspondents.

We have on hand a large number of Letters from some of our patrons ordering the direction of their paper changed but omitting to state from which office.

Of course we cannot spare the time to run through lists of some ten thousand names to find the name to make the change, hence the orders are not attended to, and the paper will be sent to the old office until a proper order is given.

☞ In your order to make a change please state the name of the office at which you have been receiving your paper as well as the office to which you desire it to be mailed in future, otherwise your order will not receive attention.

IMPORTANT RUMOR.—We had several important rumors in reference to Gen. Bragg and his army yesterday. One rumor was that General Bragg had been superseded, and that General Longstreet was put in command of his department. Another was that our troops had reoccupied Murfreesboro, the Yankees retiring towards Nashville. We do not know whether either of these reports is reliable, but both have been received here with evident satisfaction. People are more hopeful that the ground lost after the battles at Murfreesboro has already been, or soon will be, recovered, and that our army will soon again be acting on the defensive in that region, the only one in which we have lately sustained any considerable reverse, real or apparent.—Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer, 14th.

As both Gens. Bragg and E. Kirby Smith have gone to Richmond, there may be some truth in the above rumors.

NEWSPAPERS AND THE WAR.—No class of men seem so indifferent to their own pecuniary interests as newspaper men. Whilst the merchant sells his wares at from five to ten thousand per cent. advance on the old rates; whilst the farmer is raising upon his products in proportion, and whilst everything necessary to sustain life, as well as a newspaper, is selling at ten and twenty prices, publishers are still furnishing daily papers at a very slight advance on the old rates. We believe it may be safely assumed that there are but two classes of men in the Confederacy, not in the army, who are not "speculators" or "high price men," in some way or other. The parson still preaches to his congregation, at a salary which barely keeps soul and body together, while publishers of newspapers are working for the public gratis and boarding themselves.—Columbus Sun.

Are Confederate Bonds a Safe and Profitable Investment.

From the Southern Enterprise.]

I have been asked by several persons what I think of Confederate Eight Per Cent. Bonds as a safe and paying investment? Allow me, in your paper, to say a few words, which, if heeded, may help the Government, and at the same time put money in the pockets of those among us now investing funds. I think Confederate Bonds eminently safe, but success as a Government is now only a question of time. I have never believed in a short war—nor do I at present see reasons for believing it will terminate for eighteen months, or even a year longer than that. But our final success is now sure. If we succeed, Confederate Bonds are the best investment any one can have. Besides, measures will soon be taken to add State endorsements to the Confederate Debt.

If so, new bonds will be issued thus endorsed, and these bonds will be offered finally in exchange for the present eight per cents. In such an exchange, the present bonds will be worth from fifteen to twenty per cent. above par—so that if the guaranteed bonds are sold to other parties for fifty per cent. premium, they will be sold to those having the eight per cent. bonds at only thirty to thirty-five. Under such circumstances, one who now buys Confederate eight per cent. bonds, will get for them not only an interest of eight per cent., but also in two years a premium of fifteen or twenty. Adding this to the interest, the owner of these bonds will make on them fifteen to eighteen per cent. a year for two years, and then, if he chooses, sell them for a currency better than that he now pays for them; or if he prefers, get instead of them guaranteed bonds at less rates than others.

Another inducement to buy Confederate Bonds is, that as soon as our currency is properly improved, (and the prospects of this are bright,) the Confederate Government will pay its interest in specie. And still another reason in connection with this is, that if the Government pays out specie for interest on its bonds, it will require taxes to be paid in specie. Those who hold the bonds will have specie enough to pay their taxes, but others will have to buy the specie for the taxes, at whatever may be charged. As long as we hold Confederate Bonds, we need not be afraid of taxes payable in specie, but those who do not hold them are constantly in danger.

In what I have said above, I have gone on the supposition only of the value of these bonds while the war lasts. The very moment we have peace, their value as compared with others will be greatly enhanced. In truth, every other kind of security will go down, and these bonds will rise. If we had peace to-morrow, no one would take less for Confederate Bonds than forty to fifty per cent. premium.

I will be glad at any time to give further information to any of my constituents or others. I write the above because I am satisfied that if the citizens of this District know the advantage of this investment, a large amount will be added to that already contributed. Further it will lead many to call on my friend, Hamlin Beaty, Esq., the Agent of the Government, and obtain the Bonds. Let all see that they get the bonds which have the longest time to run. They are by far the most valuable.

JAMES P. BOYCE.

Song of the Texas Rangers.

INSCRIBED TO MRS. GEN. JOHN A. WHARTON.

AIR—The Yellow Rose of Texas.

The morning star is paling,
The camp-fires flicker low,
Our steeds are madly neighing,
For the bugle bids us go.
So put the foot in stirrup,
And shake the bridle free,
For to-day the Texas Rangers
Must cross the Tennessee.

With Wharton for our leader,
We'll chase the dastard foe,
Till our horses bathe their fetlocks
In the deep, blue Ohio.

Our men are from the prairies,
That roll broad, and proud and free,
From the high and craggy mountains
To the murmuring Mexic' sea;
And their hearts are open as their plains,
Their thoughts as proudly brave,
As the bold cliffs of the San Bernard,
Or the Gulf's resistless wave.

Then quick! into the saddle,
And shake the bridle free,
To-day with gallant Wharton
We cross the Tennessee.

'Tis joy to be a Ranger!
To fight for dear Southland;
'Tis joy to follow Wharton,
With his gallant, trusty band!
'Tis joy to see our Harrison,
Plunge like a meteor bright
Into the thickest of the fray,
And deal his deathly might.

Oh! who would not be a Ranger,
And follow Wharton's cry!
To battle for their country—
And, if needs be—die!

By the Colorado's waters,
On the Gulf's deep murmuring shore,
On our soft green peaceful prairies
Are homes we may see no more;
But in those homes our gentle wives,
And mothers with silv'ry hairs,
Are loving us with tender hearts
And shielding us with prayers.

So, trusting in our country's God,
We draw our stout, good brand,
For those we love at home,
Our altars and our land.

Up, up with the crimson battle-flag—
Let the blue penon fly;
Our steeds are stamping proudly—
They hear the battle-cry!
The thundering bomb, the bugle's call—
Proclaim the foe is near;
We strike for God and native land,
And all we hold most dear.

Then, spring into the saddle,
And shake the bridle free—
For Wharton leads, thro' fire and blood,
For Home and Victory!

THE HARRIET LANE.—The Harriet Lane a vessel of six hundred tons burthen, was originally built for the Revenue service, but at the beginning of the war with the South she was turned over to the Navy, and at once underwent such alterations as were thought necessary to adapt her to her new service. At the time of her capture she mounted eight guns of heavy calibre, her bow gun being a fifteen inch rifle.

NEED WATCHING.—One of the Yankee deserters recently paroled upon taking the oath of allegiance to the Confederate States, was discovered yesterday making preparations to depart for North Carolina to rejoin the Yankee forces, as he confessed. He was lodged at the Castle.

The whole heard need watching, notwithstanding their professions and oath.—Richmond Examiner.

"What do you do with the negros you take," said a Confederate soldier to a Yankee prisoner, in our hearing the other day.

"We sell some of them," was the reply. The Union men of Tennessee and Kentucky doubtless become the purchasers.—Atlanta Intelligencer.
